

Community Associations Institute
Georgia Chapter

2018 LEADERSHIP CIRCLE
APPLICATION

The Leadership Circle consists of select community association management companies that demonstrate exemplary commitment to their employees and to the CAI-Georgia Chapter. These companies show their support by investing in their employee's education and professional growth by ensuring that each of its Managers are members of CAI and their dues are paid by their employer in full.

The Leadership Circle will run on the calendar year. New applications will be offered each year. All companies must reapply annually.

Leadership Circle members enjoy the recognition and benefits of this distinction in a variety of ways, including: special recognition at CAI-Georgia events; recognition in full-page promotion in Georgia Commons magazine; recognition on CAI-Georgia Chapter's webpage; an annual Leadership Circle logo to display on the member's webpage and marketing material; and a Certificate of Leadership Circle membership.

Leadership Circle members are further encouraged to show their dedication to the CAI-Georgia Chapter in a variety ways, including: participating in CAI-Georgia events; participating on CAI committees; promoting CAI-Georgia to homeowners, through publications, coupon books, community mailings, etc.; allowing in-house CAI-Georgia membership committee presentations; encouraging manager continuing education through CAI classes; and providing exemplary service to communities as members and representatives of CAI.
